A person reported an incident to the District on June 1, 2021 which was immediately reported to the Marin County Sheriff’s Office. On the same date, Superintendent Raines was put on administrative leave pending the outcome of the investigation.

SUSD Board President Jill Manning Sartori stated, “we are shocked and saddened by the news of the arrest of Mr. Raines. The safety and well-being of children is our highest priority at Shoreline. Our hearts are with the family affected by this incident.”

The District is not able to provide any further information at this time.
